'Broker of Choice' to the Social Housing Sector

The Bruce Stevenson Social Housing team has collectively over 60 years' experience and is proud to be the only Scottish broker working in this vitally important sector.

As a full-service broker, we have worked hard to create strategic, long-lasting relationships with accountants, lawyers and other professional service agencies in order to best support social landlords with their insurance, procurement, risk management and claims handling requirements.

Representing over 70 Housing Associations exclusively in Scotland, we provide first-class service and independent advice to our customers. With our offices spread right around the country we are perfectly placed to offer support, irrespective of geographic location.
